b) Unterrichts-Ideen: (nicht nur für Englisch)

Viele der Ideen funktionieren sicherlich auch in anderen Sprachen.

Before the Woodstock Festival:

Write a letter to Bob Dylan - who was at that time living closeby - trying to convince him to participate in the Woodstock Festival.

Please refer to the lyrics of Dylan's song "The times they are a-changin' ".
(or: a phone call, an e-mail ....)

After the Woodstock festival:

Write an article in the local (rather conservative) newspaper complaining about the alleged chaos (traffic jams, dirt, waste, drugs, noise ...) during and after the festival [...]

More letter writing:

Write a letter to Barry McGuire (born 1935 and now living in New Zealand), asking him to take part in a campaign for a clean environment and reducing carbon emissions. Refer to "The Eve of destruction"

Songwriting or new lyrics for a well-known song:

Write your own song "The Eve of destruction 2013/14"

Use the music of Barry McGuire's original song (1965) or another song - It could also be your own song. In your lyrics you can refer to politics, the destruction of the environment, the treatment of minorities, the world hunger problem...

An Interview with Bob Dylan

The times they are a-changin' - How much have they actually changed?

"Family talk": A talk in an American family in 1968:

characters:

the son: a hippie, a member of the peace movement, a fan of current rock music

the mother: very conservative, traditional church-goer, believes in the "American Dream", supports the involvement of US military in the war in Vietnam.

Grandfather: also basically a traditional, conservative American, but he served in the army in World War II and is opposed to war

[Act out the scene with music in the background.]

Alternative: family talk in 2013/14:

the parents: They were hippies, peaceniks ... or are still environmentalists...
They still wear the same clothes as in the late 1960s their children: They studied business administration, served in the army, they are Republicans and drive BMWs... Of course they are good-looking...

Creative writing: Write your own diamante poem - a poem in the shape of a diamond

[schwer, könnte aber auch auf Deutsch funktionieren!]
